Humanity today stands in the midst of an unprecedented crisis. We have everything yet there is a void, an unknown fear and apprehension. Man has not faced, undeniably, such predicament for centuries now. In despair, humanity is groping in the dark, in constant apprehension of uncertainty, the mind overshadowed with an unwanted future.

Festivity and happiness is faded. A strange, fogged blend of good and bad seems to set the stage of 2021 for our avowed offerings to Maa. The mystic poetry of spring is overcast with the remembrance of disaster. In such abysmal darkness is a ray of light, laying the seat of the goddess of power amidst the....Strange Mist – A shaft of light in times of darkness.
